Amos - Lesson 4
Amos 5:1-27

1. What was new, meaningful or challenging to you from last week's lesson?

2. Read Amos 5:1-3. How does Amos feel regarding Israel and her sin? How do you feel about the sins of others?

3. Read Amos 5:4-17. With what repeated command does God appeal to His people? What blessing would follow their obedience to that command? What will happen if they do not?

4. Read the following verses: Matthew 6:24-34 and Hebrews 11:6
  - a. How does one go about seeking God?

  - b. Think carefully about your own life (desires, time, finances, etc.) What are you actually seeking? Do you need to make any changes?

5. Read Amos 5:18-20. How did the people and Amos differ in their view of the "coming day of the Lord"?

6. Would you want the Lord to return today? Why or why not?

7. Read 2 Peter 3:3-14 and 1 John 2:28-3:3. Why should "the coming day of the Lord" be a motivation for holy living today?

8. Read Amos 5:21-27. Why does God reject their worship of him? What was missing?
